Parent instructions: It is best to mail this letter via certified mail and keep a copy of the letter for yourself. Mail this letter to the school the child has attended and to the attention of the Head of the Special Education Department.*

Note from HSLDA Special Needs Coordinators: It is important to insist that the school district put any communication with you in writing. If the school district sends you a response via mail that you are concerned about, call HSLDA (540-338-5600) and ask to speak with the legal department. Be sure to have your HSLDA account number to give to the HSLDA receptionist who answers your call.*

It is important for the parent to make sure that their child's needs are being met.
